Disclosure of Criminal Records

The Specials Laboratory are engaged in the manufacturing and production of unlicensed medicines for the retail pharmaceutical and hospital markets. Given the nature of the business, it is very important that all employees can be trusted to work in an environment which involves dealing with drugs and noxious substances. For this reason, it is important to the business to ascertain whether or not any individual who may be offered a position with us has a criminal record, particularly with regard to the misuse of drugs.

Please note it is not the company's policy to automatically refuse to employ individuals who disclose a criminal conviction or who admit to having used illegal substances in the past, but it is important from the company's point of view to assess the risks associated in employing such an individual. The company is aware of its obligations under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, particularly with regard to "spent" convictions.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence involving the use of illegal substances?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	If Yes specify the date this occurred and the illegal substance(s) used:
Have you ever received a caution from the police relating to any drugs offences, even though you were not subjected to a formal criminal prosecution?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	If Yes specify the date this occurred and the details of the caution:
Do you agree to be subject to random drug and alcohol testing if you are offered a job with The Specials Laboratory?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	If No please specify your reason(s):

Declaration
